Dear Friends,

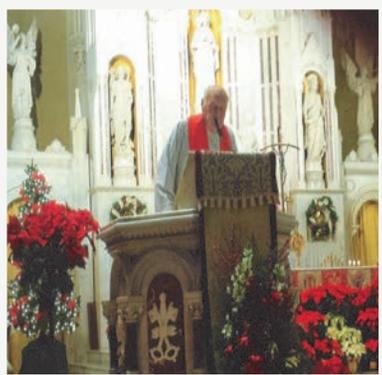

GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME. Christmas is a time when we come together and think about Jesus and his birth .

At this time of the year we should try to think about the healings we have seen or experienced in our life.

Its the Lord’s love and the Lord’s presence that changes us and makes us into a more loving people.

The more we enter into the experience of Sunday afternoon the more aware we become of God’s real love for us.

Although in many ways we are still messed up we trust in the Holy Spirit to heal us.

Let us thank Jesus for the presence of His love. How does that happen? It could be, when the Monstrance is raised, or the laying on of hands or intercessory prayer as we come together as a community.

Its a fact of life that physically you will change, emotionally you will change and spiritually you will change . Maybe even recognize a change because the love of Jesus is already in you because of your Baptism.

What Joy it brings to see a baby, who is the Son of God and the Son of Mary!

So let us MAKE ROOM FOR JESUS IN OUR HEART.

You will be remembered in my prayers and Mass during this Holy Season.

Peace, Love and JOY. Rev Robert J. Lennon C. S. s. R.

As we prepare for this special coming of Jesus at Christmas-as Jesus comes especially through the Mass-as he come to the world again in a special way on His birthday and gives the world special graces. It is important that we reach out to Jesus and look to him as he truly is. He wants to take care of us, heal us and bless us in body, in mind and in soul. So Jesus wants to give us spiritual graces, he wants to give us forgiveness of our sins. He wants to give us inner peace but he also wants to take care of our needs. This is His Mission. It is an important Mission– A Mission that Jesus came down from Heaven to fulfill because every healing that Jesus performs is a sign of his presence, a sign of his goodness, a sign of his love. Every healing is a sign that Jesus Our Redeemer is with us today just as certainly as he was on earth 2000 years ago.

Rev. Edward J. McDonough C.S.s.R

And all, whether baptized or not, belong by right to Jesus, to this Child who is born in Bethlehem; they are his brothers, called to establish this rule of his which is the most sublime and the most gentle that can be found in man’s heart or in the history of the world. The only rule worthy of God and Man; a rule of light, a rule of peace, the ‘kingdom’ for which we pray when we say the Our Father. Pope John XXIII
